

Sensory Check-In

with Your Child's Teacher

- How has my child been doing in the classroom– are they...
 - paying attention?
 - utilizing sensory breaks?
 - using their sensory tools independently?
 - participating appropriately in class activities?
 - struggling in any particular area of classwork?
- How is my child doing socially? Are they interacting with peers?
- Do any of my child's sensory tools need to be replaced?
- Have you noticed any new sensory triggers?
- Would an additional sensory break be beneficial at any point?
- Is there another type of sensory input that my child would benefit from?
- What has been working well for my child at school?
- Something we've noticed at home this week is...
- Are there any upcoming special events at school we should prepare my child for?
